

Unions 21 Week 5 March—10 March

Changing Unions in a Changing World

Edinburgh—Manchester—Leicester

Monday 5 March, 1000 registration — 13.00 course fee
Changing Borders: unions, migration and the mobile workforce
Scottish Parliament, Edinburgh (Lunch provided)

This seminar will look at the changing workforce in Scotland. From the migration of skilled professionals to new workers from the enlarged European Union, the Scottish situation presents some challenges and questions for unions:

Edinburgh Event postponed

Are unions reaching out to vulnerable migrant workers?
What is the union responsibility for skills migration?
How are trade unions adapting to the changing workforce?

Speakers include: Gordon Brown, MSP, First Minister (TBC); Grahame Smith, STUC General Secretary; Harry Donaldson, GMB Scottish Regional Secretary.

We are fortunate to be able to hold this meeting at the Scottish Parliament but this means that places for the event are limited. To avoid disappointment register early by emailing agarscadden@stuc.org.uk

In partnership with stuc
SHAPING THE FUTURE

Saturday 10 March, 9.30—13.00, Changing Unions in a Changing World, Congress House, London

David Miliband MP will be the keynote speaker. Other speakers include Frances O'Grady (TUC Deputy General Secretary), Chris Keates (NASUWT), Debbie Coulter (GMB) and Tony Dubbins (Amicus).

More details and a booking form can be found at www.unions21.org.uk